

Lisa
WARREN

Eufora National Trainer

Lisa began her career in the fall of 2006. While in beauty school she knew that she wanted to be an educator and a platform artist for a product company. The criteria were simple. The company had to walk with integrity, be environmentally friendly, and it had to align with Lisa's values - but most of all it had to be fun! Lisa found her home with Eufora and joined the education team in September of 2009. "The thing that jazzes me most is the ability to share this amazing company with my clients each and every day. In addition, I get to help develop other stylists through ongoing education and workshops." Lisa's creativity and artful eye has won her many accolades and awards, such as the Eufora Stylist of the Year Award. Her work has been published online and in many industry publications. "I have overcome fear, and continue to embrace myself as a leader. I believe that "everything speaks" and as a leader with Eufora, I embrace my insecurities, celebrate my wins, acknowledge others, and embody servant leadership-all while remaining humble and practicing gratitude."
